WHAT'S UP, HOMIES?

I'm sure all of you are excited for the upcoming Christmas break. No need to wipe that perma-smile off your face, because you can say goodbye to homework and say hello to presents, nom feasts, and fun times with the fam bam...for now, at least! I personally enjoy the month of December because I get to see my crazy cuzins (and my equally crazy, mom and sibs), act like I've got no chill with my rowdy buds (they're quite a handful, trust), and down all the hot chocolate I want in semi-chilly weather (Time to bust out all those nerdy sweaters!). You, however, rad-tastic KZer, have another reason to be on Santa's nice list: K-Zone's super-amazing-it-mos-def-belongs-inside-your-Christmas-stocking TOY SPESH!!!

So, what's in store for ya:

1. A sea of all of the coolest toys to ever exist. Really, it's soooooo cool, you'll wanna swim in it!
2. Arlo, a good-natured dinosaur that has a hooman for a pet. Yup, you can count on Pixar to bring the weird.
3. More Star Wars geekery for you and dad to go bonkers over. #ForceFeels
4. A new Pokémon game to button-mash the time away. Pika-pika!
5. And a partridge in a pear tree. Just kidding. Lolz!

So spread the love this Christmas, I'll bros! Try to be extra nice and avoid being naughty (Well, no judgment if you decide to be a weeeeeee bit naughty, Hee hee!). Remember, 'tis the season to be awesome!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS,

HOW TO TRAIN YOUR HOOMAN

Arlo wants to get back home to his dino fam bam, stat. Good thing he met Spot, his pet human! Before they begin their journey, Arlo needs to teach Spot a few tricks. Break out KZ's Dino's guide to training humans!

THINGS YOU'LL NEED:

CORN (OR BACON, WHICHEVER'S AVAILABLE)
To get your human's full attention, give him food.
Works every time.

FIREFLIES
If your hooman does a good job, reward him with live entertainment—
a nature light show!

TOOTHBRUSH
Brush his teeth every day.
In case he bites you, you won't get an infection (trust us, he bites).

TAME TO GET SERIOUS

To win the trust of a human, don't chase him, scream at him, or intimidate him. Wait for him to approach you. Remember, patience makes the heart grow fonder. (Wait, wuf?) Anyway, humans are suckers for the underdog, er, underdino; they'll instantly befriend you once they feel you're not a threat to them.

THE NAME GAME

Take a good look at your human and think of a perfect name for him. Now shout out a couple of names at him and wait for your human to respond to one. Better do this immediately after you meet your pet human or else a stranger might name him first. Y'know, whoever names it, keeps it. You snooze, you lose!

DINO IN DISTRESS!

Humans are a sociable and protective species—a natural (good) dino's best friend! Treat your human right and he will shower you with TLC. Need help gathering food? Your pet human's on it. Missing your family? He will stay by your side and keep you company. Prehistoric snake on the loose? Pet human to the rescue! #BESTBUDS4LYF

HUMANS CAN TEACH DINOS A THING OR TWO, TOO!

1 How to make a primitive gerbil come out of hiding: Take a deep breath and blow hard into the hole on the ground where the gerbil came from until the little rodent pops out of the soil.

2 If there's no bridge, be the bridge. (Warning: Human may bite.)

3 Be brave and kind. A single act of kindness can change everything. True story, bro!

OUT OF THIS WORLD!

ATTENTION, MAGICAL ALIENS! WANNA VISIT EARTH? WELL, STAR FROM STAR VS. THE FORCES OF EVIL HAS A FEW POINTERS ON HOW YOU CAN BLEND IN AND LIVE AMONG EARTHLINGS. TAKE NOTES, NOOBS!

MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME

Feeling homesick? Bring a few things from your own dimension to personalize your new bedroom. Heck, why not cast a transformation spell to turn it into your old bedroom. It's like you never left home!

GET YOUR OWN HOOMAN

To get the best Earth experience, ask a local like Marco to be your tour guide. With an Earthling by your side, you'll never get lost on this foreign planet.

FOUNTAINS ARE FRIENDS, NOT FOES!

#TIL Menacing metal contraption that spews out cold, clear liquid is called a drinking fountain. It is harmless. Do not engage the fountain. I repeat, do not engage.

KEEP IN TOUCH

Missing your peeps? Chat with your fam bam and buds back home using a magical mirror. Live updates: totes possible!

DO AS THE EARTHLINGS DO

Immerse yourself in earthling culture by participating in hooman school activities such as playing sports. To ensure your victory, set up booby traps on the playing field. Smells like teen spirit!

SHARE YOUR CULTURE

Give your hooman squad a culture crash course on some of your traditions back home. For example, to celebrate Mewnipendence Day, divide your friends into two teams, humans VS monsters, then wage an all out battle. (With swords!)

ACROSS THE UNIVERSE

In Star Vs. The Forces Of Evil the aliens use Dimensional Scissors to travel into different dimensions. Here are some of the amazeballs places you could visit should you ever possess this item.

AMETHYST ARCADE

Get your A-game on in this fancy geek hub where everything is made of crystals, including the arcade cabinets!

QUEST BUY

Do your souvenir shopping in this crazy gigantic mall that has everything you'll ever need or didn't know you needed in life. The catch? Its maze-like structure makes searching for the counter radically ridic!

THE BOUNCE LOUNGE

Show off your slick moves on the dance floor in this interdimensional club found way up in the clouds. Just watch your step, bro, 'cause it's a long way down and the ground is full of spikes. (Nope, nope, nope!)

SCUM BUCKET

Dive into this underwater club and rub fins with merpeople, dolphins, and sharks. Yay, fish party!!!

TIMEY-WIMEY THROWBACK

BENSON VERSUS YOUNGER BENSON

Both Bensons agree to a major drum-off. Younger Benson wins since he's done more band practice. Benson and Benson (Confused yet?) think about forming a band.

MUSCLE MAN AND HIGH FIVE GHOST VERSUS YOUNGER MUSCLE MAN AND HIGH FIVE GHOST

Muscle Man brawls with his younger self while Five is in a heated arm-wrestling match with his younger verish. After a while, both teams are exhausted and call it a tie. They lie down and take a nap. Snooze-fest!

SKIPS VERSUS YOUNGER SKIPS

These two don't fight since they're pretty mature for their age (Read: immortal). Instead, both Skips hang out and talk about how crazyballs their park friends are. Le!z!

MORDECAI AND RIGBY VERSUS YOUNGER MORDECAI AND RIGBY

They challenge their younger selves to an arcade game! Mordecai and Rigby emerge victorious because they've been playing vgames for years and have mastered all the levels. Ooooooh! Much to learn, young ones!

IN REGULAR SHOW: THE MOVIE, MORDECAI, RIGBY, AND THE REST OF THE PARK GANG MEET THEIR YOUNGER SELVES FROM SIX YEARS AND FOUR MONTHS AGO (LONG STORY). HOW DO THEY DEAL? WELL, WE PIT THEM AGAINST EACH OTHER TO SEE WHAT HAPPENS.

BACK TO THE FUTURE

In the Regular Show's future, Mordecai and Rigby aren't friends gasps. Plus there's the inevitable destruction of time cave of the Timenado. But other than that, the future looks bright. Check it out!

1. SPACESHIPS

If you're a hardcore gamer then you're in luck 'cause you pilot the ship using a video game controller. LOL!

2. FUTURISTIC FASHION

Everyone in the future has some sick gear that's totes cosplay-worthy. Even the park peeps are now called Intergalactic Park Rangers.

3. KICKBUTT BLASTER

Go pew, pew, pew like a boss! Obliterate homework forever!

4. AUTO-FINDER

Can't find your phone or maybe your younger sib? Use this nifty gadget.

5. TIMEY/IMEY ADVENTURE

The ships have a "Time Warp" button. Schweet! Think of the possibilities!

THE "BACK TO BEING BROS" STARTER PACK

Is it Fo (Friendship Oooh-ver) between you and your best bud? We show ya how to make amends.

1. THE TRUTH SHALL SET YOU FREE

Did you accidentally break your bud's fave toy fig? Fess up, man! Hiding it from him will make it waaaay worse. Sure, he'll be upset at first but he'll forgive ya (hopefully).

2. APOLOGY ACCEPTED?

Gee, if only there were a word you could say to explain to your bro that you feel bad about what you did. Oh wait, there is! Say sorry and acknowledge your mistake.

3. PEACE OUT, MAN!

Give your best bud some alone time to process everything and chill.

4. HELP A BRO OUT

Make it up to him by treating him to some noms or at the local Internet café and talk it over. Or help him carry a case of plutonium, which will help destroy the Timenado.

5. FRIENDSHIP: RESTORED!

Promise not to mess up again and you're back to being the best of bros! How bromantic...

Hint: We can imagine her mom saying, "Young lady, there's no way I'm letting you fight evil when you're getting bad grades at school!"

2

Hint: The coach in this anime, who has terribad cooking skills, once made her team eat a curry dish that she prepared. #MajorVom

3

Hint: There's a band mascot in this anime that looks more like a strange alien than a tuba. LOL!

4

Hint: The famous master thief in this anime is deathly afraid of fish.

5.

Hint: Remember that scene when a spiker accidentally hit the school dean and knocked off his wig? Epic lelz!

6.

Hint: One of the main characters in the anime is a Panda who once dressed up as Darth Vader.

7.

Hint: There's a character in this anime who wears swimming trunks underneath his school uniform.

8.

Hint: Whenever this cyclist sees an intimidating opponent, he imagines a big cuddly bear is riding the bicycle.

THE BB-8 BREAKDOWN

HOW DOES THIS DROID GO ROUND AND ROUND? PREPARE TO GET YOUR MIND BLOWN! #YEAHSCIENCE

When BB-8 first rolled out on Hall H's stage during the Star Wars panel at this year's San Diego Comic-Con, jaws dropped to the floor; everybody was curious about how its mechanism worked. Some say the droid moves with the help of magnets, while others say there's some quantum physics involved (Quantum whut?). Some people even believe that BB-8 is powered by The Force!

THE BASICS

BB-8 can autonomously roll around and rotate its head because of two things: magnets and a gyroscope. (Okay, and batteries.)

THIS IS THE DROID YOU'RE LOOKING FOR!

Robot company Sphero made a BB-8 toy that can be controlled by using an app on your smartphone or tablet! Here's how this mini 'bot basically works:

1. Gyroscope. A gyroscope is a mechanism that has a rotating wheel mounted on an axis in order for the wheel to move around freely in all directions while still maintaining an upright position.

2. Omni wheels. Inside the BB-8 toy's thick plastic case are two wheels that are connected to a gyroscope and the toy's central drive system, which can be controlled via remote control. Still don't get it? Picture a hamster running inside a toy wheel. The hamster acts like the gyroscope with wheels while the toy wheel is like BB-8's plastic case. Once the hamster starts running, the toy wheel moves forward.

3. Weight. BB-8's base consists of the batteries and the copper coil plate used for charging the toy. They also act as a counterweight to keep the wheels in contact with the case and in an upright position as they start rolling.

4. Magnets. The magnets are on top of the mast, which is located at the top center of the toy's mechanism. They keep BB-8's head attached to the body no matter what direction the sphere goes.

SECRET SANTA

THE TERROR TRIBUNE

PAGE 48

Naughty kids, beware.

DECEMBER 2015

On Secret Santa day, Miss Santos called each one of her students to give them their presents. Jeremy's eyes widened when the teacher called his name and held out a big, colorful box.

"Awesome!" He yelled. As he went in front of the class to claim his present, he purposely kicked his classmate Ciara's leg. "Outta the way, tub o' lard," he hissed.

Once he got his gift, he immediately opened the package. Suddenly, hundreds of cockroaches climbed out of the box and up his elbow. Jeremy yelped, pulling back his hand and vigorously shaking it to get rid of the nasty insects.

Who would give a box full of cockroaches? He thought of all the names of people that he had hurt, teased, and picked a fight with. No one would dare pull that nasty prank on me, right?

As the days went by, Jeremy received more disgusting gifts like a dead frog and a rotting, maggot-infested chicken leg.

One afternoon, Ciara approached him. "Jeremy, I-I'm your Secret Santa," she stuttered. "But I didn't give all the gross stuff that you've been receiving, I swear!"

"You're such a loser!" Jeremy yelled at his terrified classmate. "So that's how you want to get even, huh? Well, your gifts don't scare me!" He was about to grab Ciara but she quickly ran away.

Fuming, Jeremy walked back to their classroom. The lights were switched off and everybody had left. He headed to the cabinet near the teacher's desk, opened it, and saw a box with his name on it. Jeremy greedily reached out for it.

"Merry Christmas," a deep, gruff voice said.

Jeremy quickly turned around. A large silhouette was standing at the far end of the classroom, looking menacingly at him.

"If there's a Santa for goody-goodies, there's one for naughty kids, too." The voice suddenly sounded smooth, almost charming. "I'm the Secret Santa."

The hulking figure suddenly walked closer toward Jeremy. Yellow, reptilian eyes peered out of its black-ringed lids.

It had long fangs and a red-streaked beard. The monster was dressed in a faded Santa suit that had blood stains on the white fur lining of its collar and cuffs. Two big, sharp horns stuck out of its pointy red hat.

"And unlike good ol' Santa, I don't drink milk and eat cookies. You know what I like to eat?"

Before Jeremy could run away, the Secret Santa suddenly swooped down on the boy as he screamed for help...but, alas, no one could hear him. ☹

There's only one way to save the galaxy: Get familiar with the multicolored lightsabers of the Star Wars Universe.

BLUE LIGHTSABERS

Forged using ilium crystal, these blades are of the highest quality. Since blue embodies uniformity, solidarity, and protection, these bad boys are reserved for the Jedi Order.

USED BY: Anakin Skywalker, Obi-Wan Kenobi, Anakin Solo, Plo Koon, and Ki-Adi-Mundi

ANAKIN SKYWALKER'S

OBI-WAN KENOBI'S

DARTH VADER'S

KYLO REN'S

RED LIGHTSABERS

Jedi and Sith can use any color of lightsaber. The Sith, however, prefer to use red blades in honor of ancient, powerful Sith Lords Darth Revan and Darth Malax, who wielded crimson sabers.

USED BY: Darth Vader, Asajj Ventress, Kylo Ren, Darth Sidious, Count Dooku, and Darth Maul

DYK? Red sabers are usually made out of colored, synthetic crystals. Sith Lords would craft them using the power of the Dark Side.

GREEN LIGHTSABERS

"Peace Users," Consulars, or Jedi carry green lightsabers. FYI, Luke Skywalker made his own lightsaber blade out of a natural crystal then channeled his Force and personality into it. You da man, Luke!

USED BY: Master Yoda, Ahsoka Tano, Luke Skywalker, Kit Fisto, and Qui-Gon Jinn

LUKE SKYWALKER'S

MASTER YODA'S

PURPLE LIGHTSABERS

Sith-turned-Jedi peeps own purple lightsabers.

#TheChoicelsYours

USED BY: Mace Windu, Mara Jade Skywalker, Jana Solo, Kyp Durron, and Jaden Korr

DYK? The purple glow of Mace Windu's lightsaber comes from Hurrikaine crystals found on the planet Hurikane.

MACE WINDU'S

BLACK LIGHTSABER

The black lightsaber A.K.A. Darksaber is a one-of-a-kind ancient Jedi weapon. Unlike other lightsabers, its blade is thin and curved at the end.

LIFE HACKS

PREHISTORIC AGE

If hoomans lived during the age of the dinosaurs, how would we have survived? (No Wi-Fi?!)le gasp Outwit, outplay, and outlast with KZ's epic prehistoric survival tips!

DOMESTICATED DINOS

1. Mowing the lawn.

When Mom says the lawn needs trimming, round up your pet herbivores and let them chow down on the overgrown weeds and grass in the garden—saves you time and energy from having to feed them yourself, too. Aww yiss!

2. Fly in Style.

Traveling by land is sooo old-fashioned. Traveling by air is the cool way to go! Train your pet Pterodactyl to fly you from point A to point B so you can arrive at cavekid school quick and easy. Plus, you get to be one of the first pilots in history! #Epic

3. Pick and Play.

Can't reach tasty treats like mangoes and coconuts that are high up on trees? Use an Apatosaurus as a crane. After you've got your hands on them goodies, just slide down the dino's long neck! Fun times, bruh!

CLUBBING DOS AND DON'TS

DO hold your club with both hands for extra control when you're about to hunt down that hunky piece of steak.

DON'T use your club to whack a flying cockroach. Respect the club, man. Respect the club.

DO use your club to mash potatoes, fruits, or veggies. (Wipe the veggie mush under the table and—Voila!—No more veggies!)

DON'T walk into a cave party holding your club up in the air and chanting, "Ugs, ugs, ugs!" So uncivilized, bro.

ROCKS ROCK!

To make a fire, keep striking two smooth stones together near a small pile of dry leaves until you see sparks and smoke.

Use a solid, big rock as a hammer to fix up your kid-cave. The handyman caveman can!

Look for a sharp and pointed stone then attach it to a long and sturdy stick and you've got yourself a kick-butt weapon. Predators, beware!

Make everybody's lives easier by inventing something smooth, round, and made of stone—a tool that would help humankind transport heavy objects and travel from place to place. Then call it "the wheel." Genius!

THE HUNT IS ON

BULLSEYE! Make like Katniss and take out fast food—y'know, those zippy animals that run, like, a mile a minute—by using a bow and arrow. #HungerGames

GO BOXING Prop up one side of a box with a stick, tie a piece of loooooong string around the stick then put some kibble under the box as bait. Hide in a nearby bush, wait for prey to approach your trap, and pull the string once your victim is under the box. Hunting a mammoth? You're gonna need a bigger box, dude!

EAT OUT Too tired to hunt? Go to the nearest hard rock café! Badumtss!

ORDER IN If going out of your cave is too much effort, just call your local dino delivery via smoke signal.

COOKING FOOD

1. Solar power. When it's super hot outside, try to cook an egg on top of a flat rock that's been sitting under the sun. If you, by any chance, have Brachiosaurus bacon, put some strips next to the egg. Ta-dah! Breakfast of cavemen champs!

2. Fresh is best. After catching a fish, clean it, gut it, and carefully slice it into strips like sashimi. Oishi!

3. Ferment to be. Got salt? It's a miracle ingredient. Mix 1 and 1/2 parts salt and 8 parts water in a container, stir well until the salt completely dissolves then soak your food in it. Use it to preserve or cure meat (beef tapa), fish (tuyo), eggs (salted eggs), or veggies (pickles). Yummerz!!!

SURVIVING THE ELEMENTS

1. Cold nights.

Heat some smooth rocks in a fire, take them out after a few minutes, distribute them on the ground where you'll sleep, and then cover the hot rocks with a thick blanket. Insta-hot bed!

2. Scorch Trials.

When the sun's too hot to handle, go into the forest and grab a huge leaf with a long stem. Umbrella-ella-ella-yeah!

3. I lava this weather.

Did the nearby volcano erupt? Look for higher ground and take cover, dude! Best to stay indoors for a while and wait for the air to clear up.

SUPER FAST FOOD

Hall of Justice Combo, Superman Man of Steel BBQ Burrito, Robin's Seasoned Sidekick, Wonder Woman Turkey Roll, and Dark Knight Wagyu Beef Burger...are you salivating yet, bruh? Hop on a plane and make your way to the DC Comic Super Heroes Café at the Marina Bay Sands in Singapore and try these super-tasty treats! After you've satisfied your hunger pangs, take a side trip to the merch shop nearby and buy some DC loot! The DC Café has already two branches in Malaysia. Don't ya just wish they had one in Manila?

SKULL SPROUTS

Peeps in China are losing their minds over hair clips with sprouts! Yep, you read it right. The accessories are making headway (Geddit?) in Beijing and soon the world. According to cnn.com, over one million clips have been sold online. The sprout clips are a hit because they're cheap and they instantly make a statement. Some of the sprouts are made of plastic and some are real plants. Groot would be so proud!
